

Investigating Determinants of Academic Success in Spain's Título de Bachiller

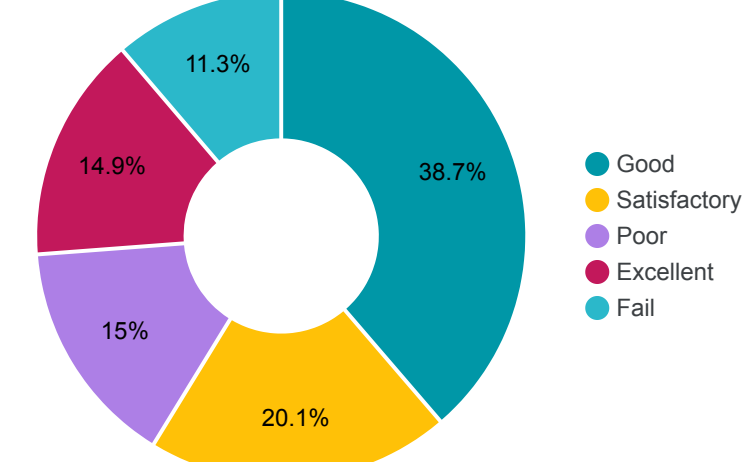

Average score

71.11

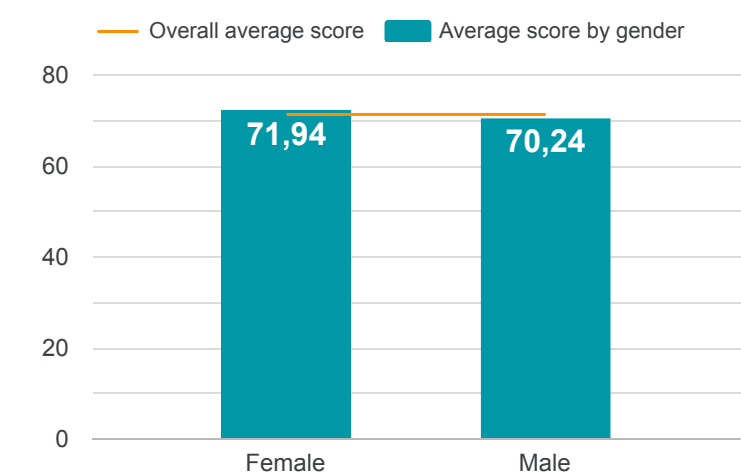

Gender ratio

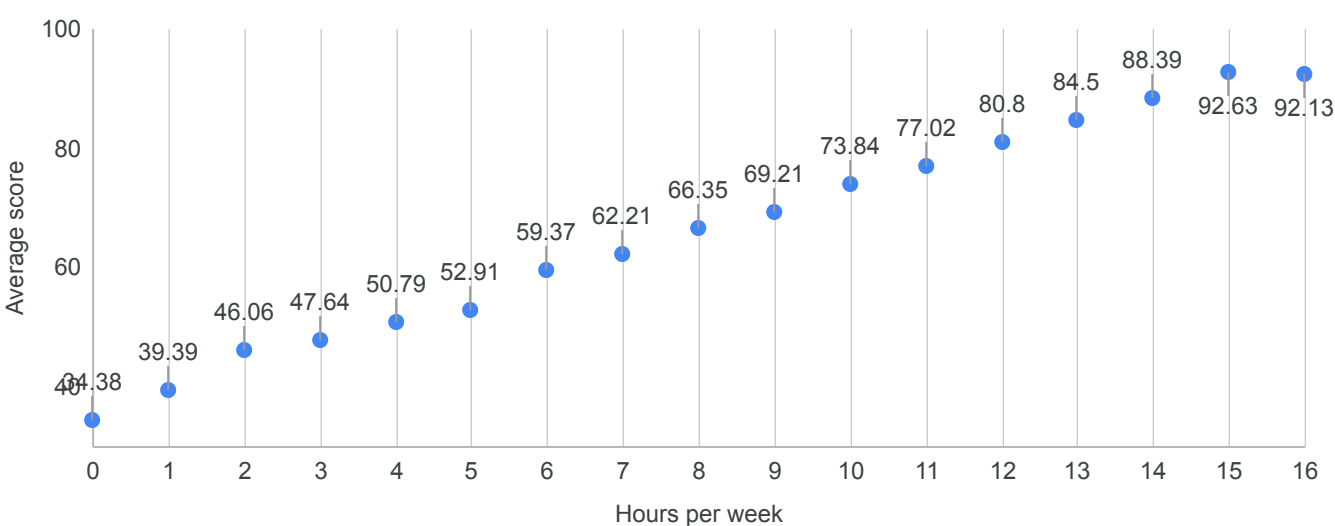

Student performance

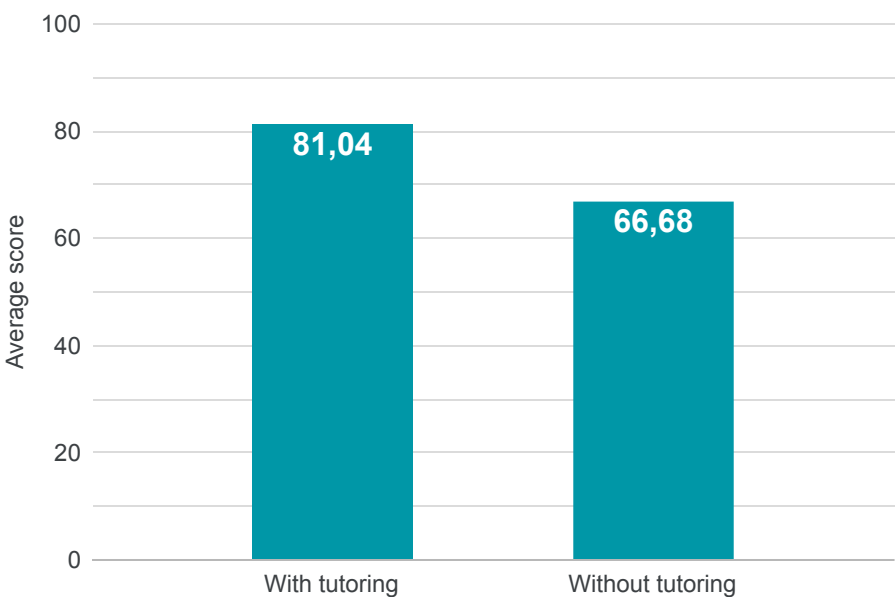

Average score for men and women

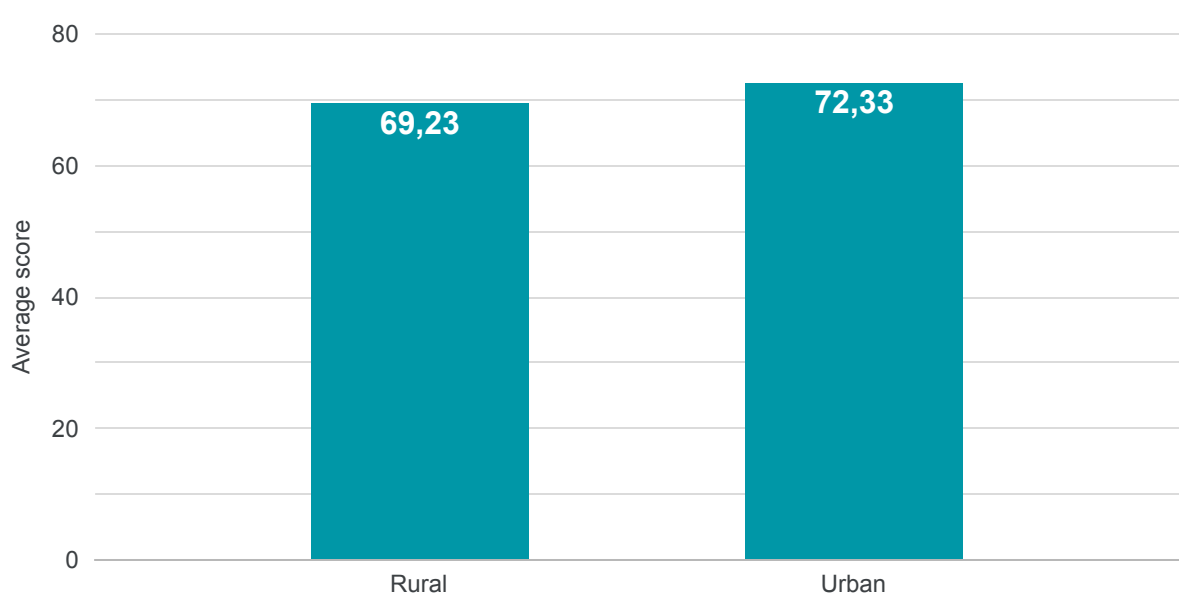

Relationship between average score and number of hours per week

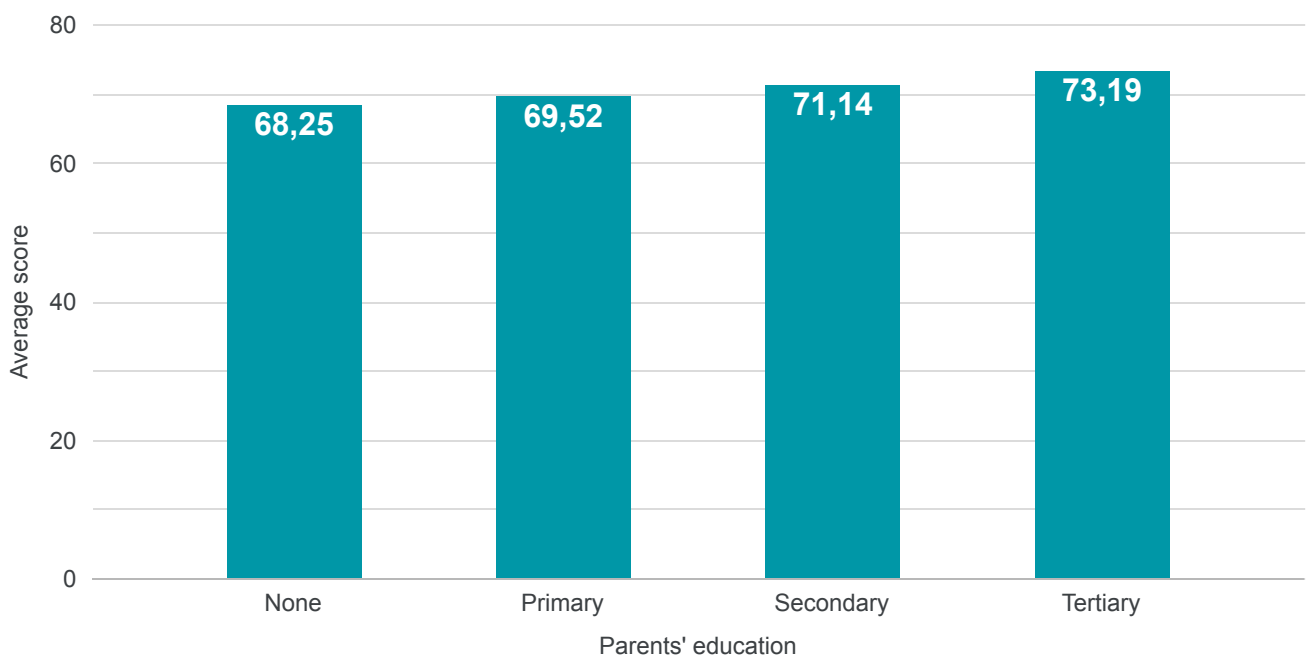

Influence of tutoring on the average score

Relationship between students' residence and average score

The student's average score depends on their parents' education level

Impact of attendance on average score

